Have you seen the old man in the closed down market,
 Have you seen the old girl Who walks the Streets of Lon - don.
 In the all night ca - fe At a quarter past e - le - ven
 Have you seen the old man Out - side the sea - mans mis - sion

Kic - king up the pa - per with his worn out shoes
 Dirt in her hair And her clothes in rags?
 Me - mory Same old man Sit - ting there on his own fa - ding with The me - dal ribbons that he wears?

In his eyes you see no pride Hand held loose - ly by his side,
 She's no time for tal - king She just keeps right on wal - king
 Look - ing at the world O - ver the rim of his tea - cup
 In our win - ter ci - ty The rain cries a lit - tle pi - ty For

Yes - ter - days pa - per tel - ling yes - ter - day's news So
 Car - rying her home In two car - rier bags
 Each tea lasts an hour And he wanders home a - lone.
 one more for - gotten he - ro And a world that does - nt care

how can you tell me youre lone - - - ly

And say for you that the sun don't shine?

Let me take you by the hand And lead you through the streets of Lon - don

I'll show you some - thing to make you change your mind
